to sign your yearbook!

Jessica,

I took up a lot of space
but that's okay. You and me have become best friends this year.
You have helped me
through a lot of decision making like guys! Thank for always being there! Don't forget me!

Peace- love,
out! Emily

Jessica,

Hey Gal, you are a sweet gal with an awesome personality!

Thanks 4 being a friend.

-Cari Haskell-

Jessica,
Just wanted to tell you to have a great summer
as well as a great life. Bye. Bye.

I'll make it short because it's just so difficult to put our friendship into words (Also I've been signing yearbooks
all day.) D.B. Wood

Jessica -
This year was great being the head haunchos, but next year we'll have to start over again. But at least I'll have Hans to look after me, right?
I hope we have fun this summer +
Next year we'll finally be in High School?

"Once upon a time many years ago, a wise man once said, 'Eagle
Pride Never Dies. It just grows and grows.
As it grows so does this eagle. His name is PRIDE!
He is here to illuminate his world -
Welcome to it!'"
- Taken from the 1980 Aerie

As an Editor . . . this year I learned responsibility and leadership. So on behalf of the 1997 Tippit Junior Aerie yearbook committee I would like to thank Coach Garza. I would also like to thank Mrs. Boyer for putting up with us and our mess.

Journeying Through Life

Finger Licking Good - Before the game in the locker room, Nick Pearson kisses the seventh grade Blue Team's mascot "Stick", while James Wilson waits for his turn. Stick is very reliable. Not only does he serve as a mascot, but also a great door holder.

GO EAGLES!

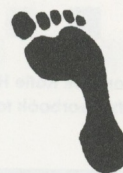

STUDENT LIFE

Each Day Is A New Day

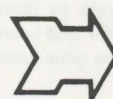

Preparing For Battle: Before school Jenny Doherty and Laura Leps prepare for a day as twins. Twin Day was a lot of fun.

Thirsty? Well you aren't the only one. Amanda Boone laughs at Sam Glasscock as she takes a gulp from her water bottle during lunch. Lunch is most student's favorite subject.

Clowning Around: With towel in hand Mrs. Griffith works on cleaning the paint off of Jeffery Davis. This year Drama has done a lot of face painting.

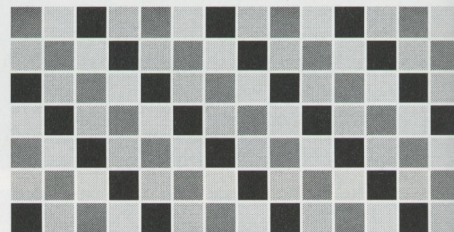

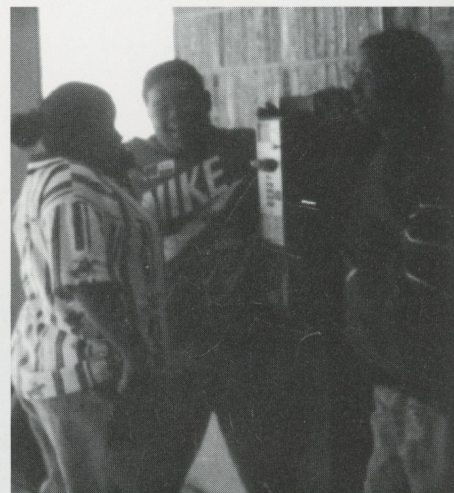

Our Every Day Lives

Hard work - In yearbook Katie Harvey and Kristin Cerda work on layouts. Yearbook takes a lot of hard work.

Hello? - During lunch, Karla Vasquez makes a call while Carlos Vasquez and Stephanie Miller stand around. The phone can be very useful.

Adding To The Noise - Waiting for Mr. Humphreys to dismiss them, Katie McCallister, Rachel Culler, and Lauren Lawhon talk about how their days have gone. Lunch is a great time to talk.

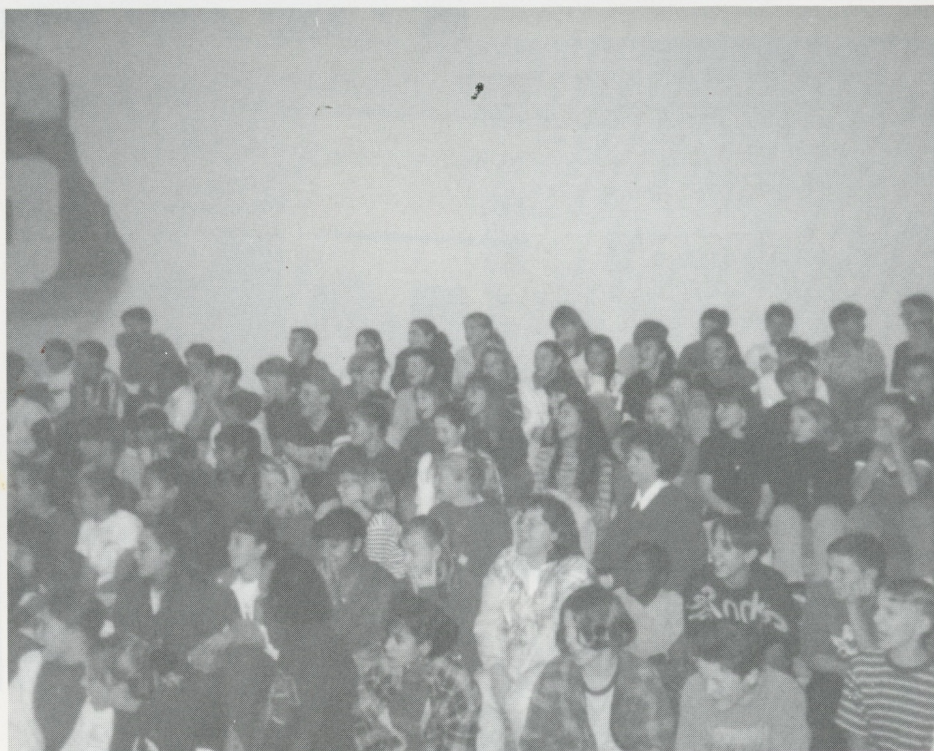

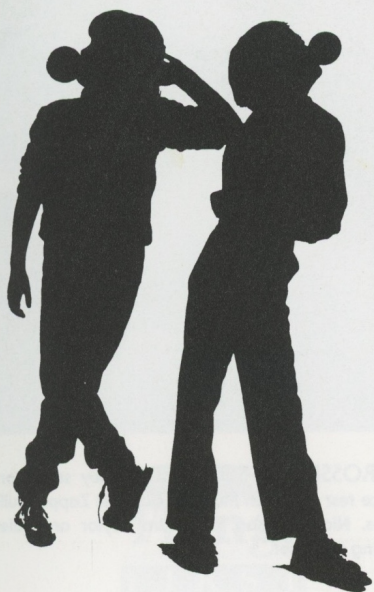

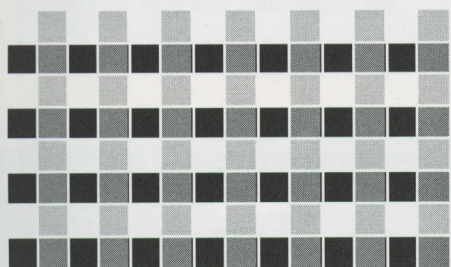

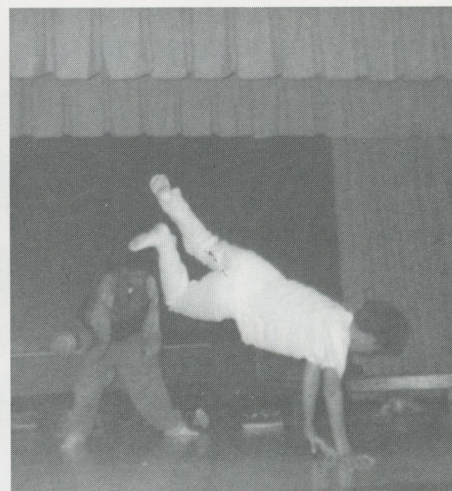

Pick A Number - During lunch, Monica Cagle guesses the number of fire balls in the jar. This was one of the activities that students participated in during Red Ribbon Week.

Journeying Every Day In Life

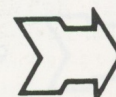

Go Eagles - At a pep rally, the 8th grade football team cheers as loud as they can. The pep rallies have been great this year.

Get Down - On the stage at lunch, Joe Alderete teaches Richard Maldonado how to break dance. Lunch is a cool time to hang-out at school.

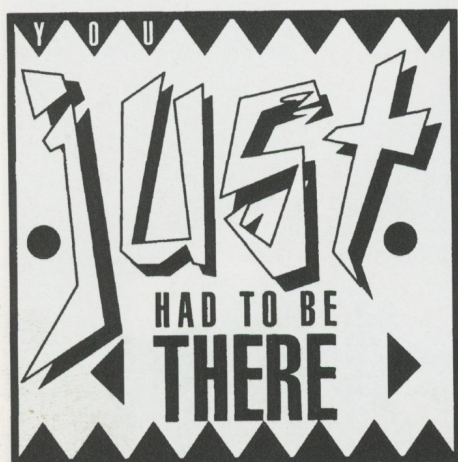

Just Say No - In the gym the seventh graders listen to an assembly put on by a group of high school students for Red Ribbon Week. They did good work all year.

Everyday Is A New Challenge!

Live It Up!

TALK, TALK, TALK! As they sit and wait for the bell to ring, Tippit students talk to each other and relax after lunch.

YOU BETTER BE CAREFUL! During lunch, Mr. Humphries lectures Charlie Russell, Chris Carlisle, Jay Jordan, and Scott Shaver for getting in trouble during 8th grade lunch.

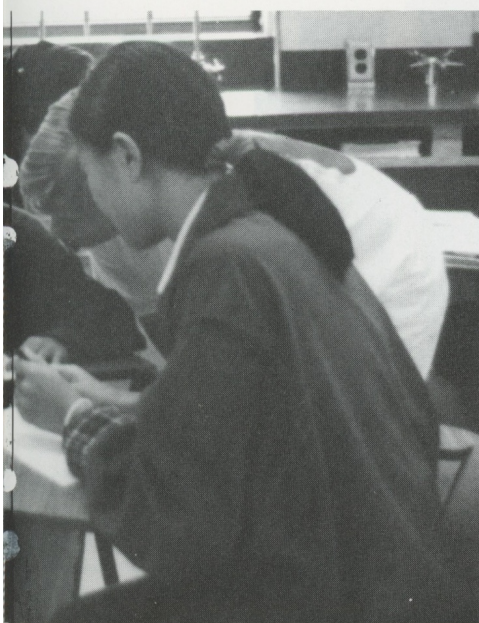

ENGROSSED IN SCIENCE! As they study for a science test in Coach Munoz's class, Jill Zappa, Cullen Davies, Nick Pearson, and Kim Taylor are quietly studying together.

UH-OHH! Since Mindy Murphy got in trouble during lunch, Mr. Humphries tells her to start sweeping.

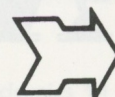

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT! Mrs. Brandenberger, the choir teacher, leads Heather Jackson, Veronica Naverrette, Devin Oswald, Jennifer King, Kristin Ochoa, Christin Miller, and Kim Taylor in their new song.

FIRST
Things
FIRST

TIME TO CHEER! As the TMS crowd cheers for their favorite twins, the twins chosen wait patiently for them to reveal the winners!

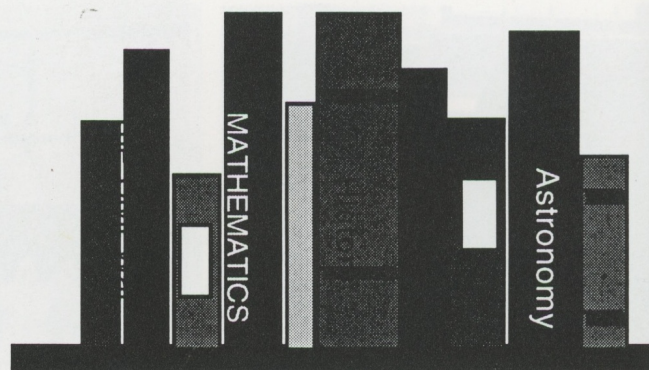

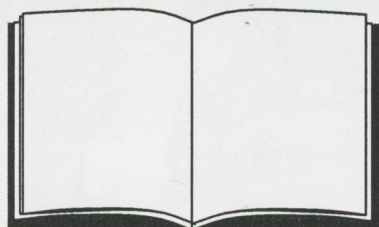

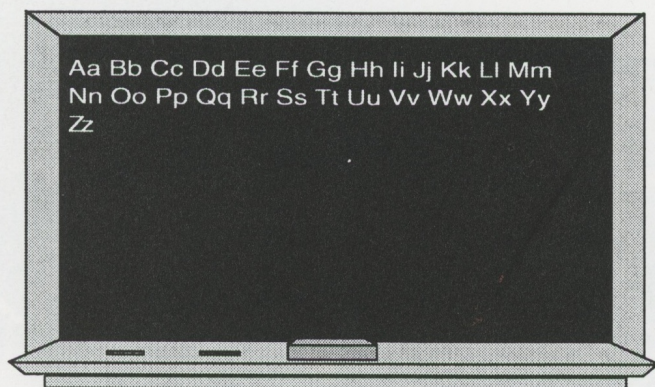

Journeying To New Heights

CRAMMING - Sitting at lunch Noelsa Perez is doing math homework. Noelsa spent many lunches at the same table doing homework and talking with friends.

Stringing Them Up - In Art Class Sarah McCaskill hangs up paper mache creation.

ACADEMICS

Striving For Our Best

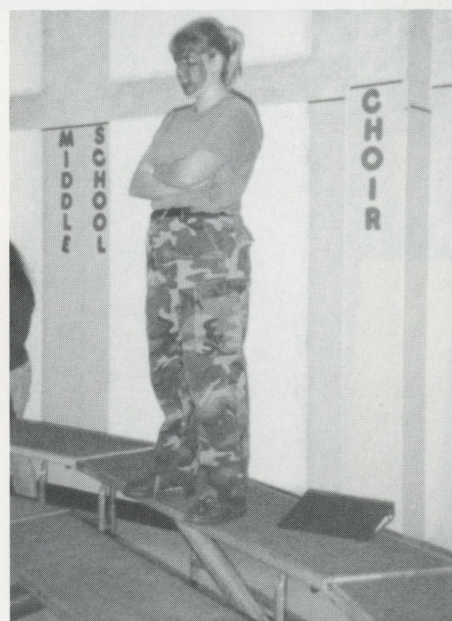

KEEPING OUR EYES ON THINGS - During Science, Jessica Williams, Jason Rosipal, and Lia Menchaca are conducting a science experiment. The three students made a great team throughout the year.

COLORFUL SCHOOL SPIRIT - Sitting in Mr. Miller's science class, Taryn Stanley shows off her rainbow colored socks during Red Ribbon Week. Taryn kept everyone pumped with her abundant school spirit.

DEEP IN THOUGHT - Taking a break from academics, Kristen Maxey stares off into space. Kristen was seen all over campus since she was very active in sports.

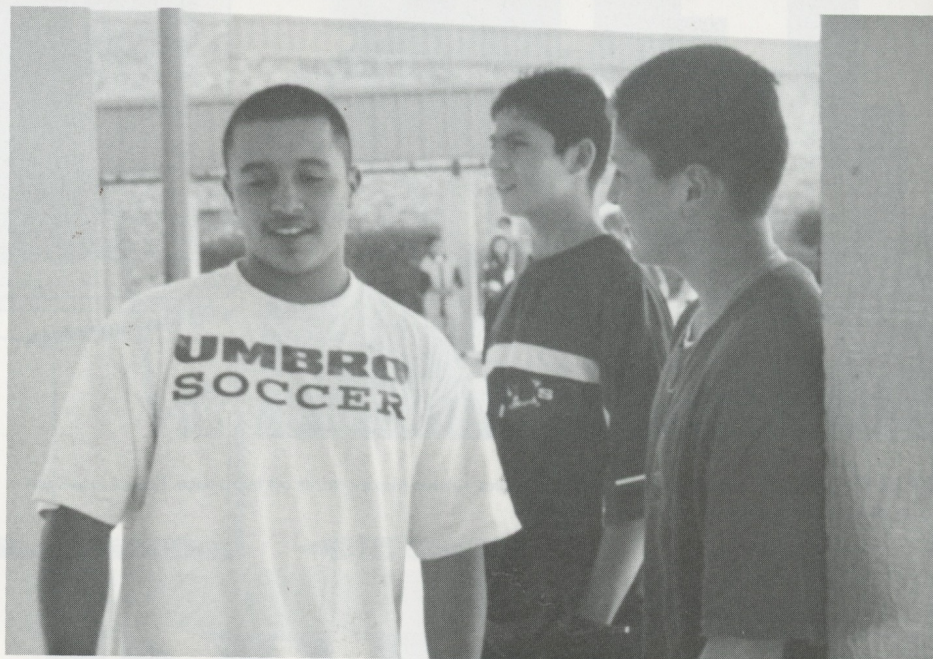

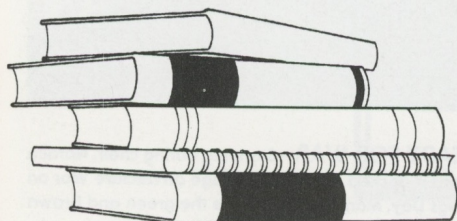

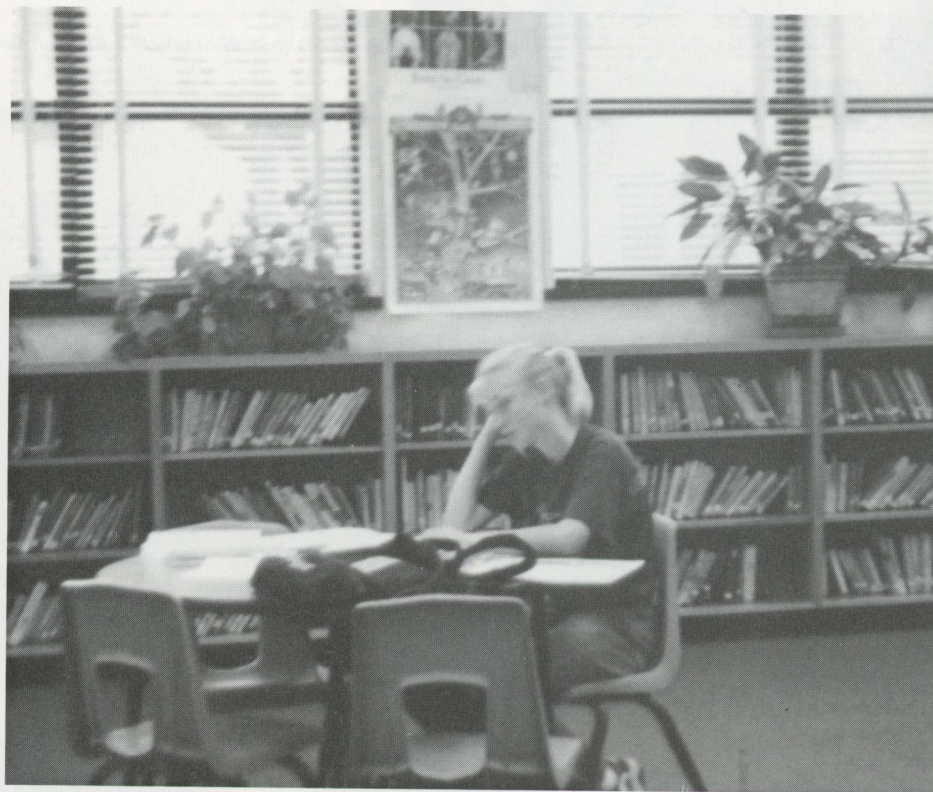

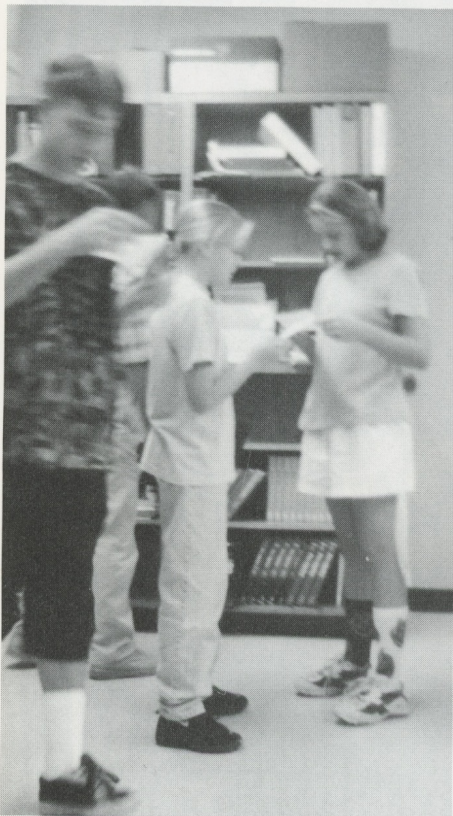

READY FOR WAR - Standing during choir, Natalia Jones is decked out in camouflage on Declare War on Drugs Day. Many students wore the green and brown clothing during Red Ribbon Week event.

Studying For A Successful Journey

Working To Reach The End Of The Road

OH MY GOSH! - Comparing answers, Lindsey Charbonneau and Kristen Maxey find out that their answers differ. Exchanging answers helped students make higher grades.

WOOF WOOF! - While reading White Fang, Tracy Wolf looks into space. Students often used the library to relax and get away from all the noise.

REMEMBER THAT! - Eighth Graders Chris Martinez, Adam Guzman, and Eric Mireles talk during the lunch break. The lunch break gives time for the students to visit with one another.

JUST CHILLIN'- Waiting for class to start, Bridget Burke sits in Mr. Miller's Science class. Since she was a cheerleader, Bridget was often seen in uniform.

LET ME SHOW YA HOW IT'S DONE.- An eager Chris Mcfall shows Jon Henson what to do for his homework. Throughout the year the students helped each other with school-work.

CHECK OUT THE SHADES- Seventh grader Lars Nyberg, shows his shades to the camera during Red Ribbon Week. People dressed up to show they are Drug-Free.

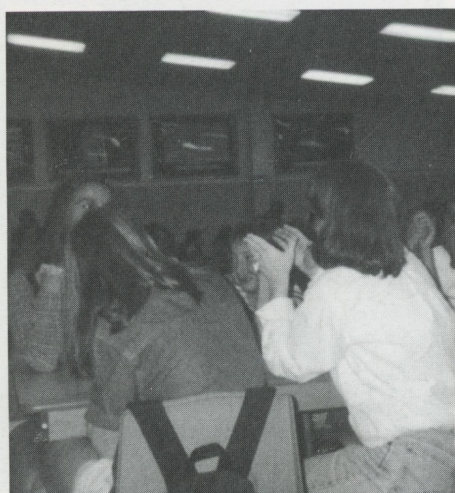

GOT TO FINISH THIS DOOR- While decorating the choir door, Laura Hope shows her school spirit, and that she is Drug-Free. Students were often seen doing these types of projects during Red Ribbon Week.

WHAT'S FOR LUNCH? This group of girls is taking a break and chowing down.

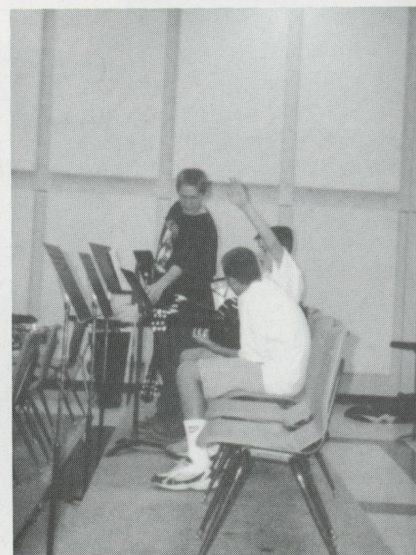

TALKING IT OVER. Getting ready to start a theater project, Danielle Trofe, Mary McKnight, and another girl are trying to think what they were going to do.

WHAT'S UP? Even though the schedule has changed, this group of friends is talking over the events of the day.

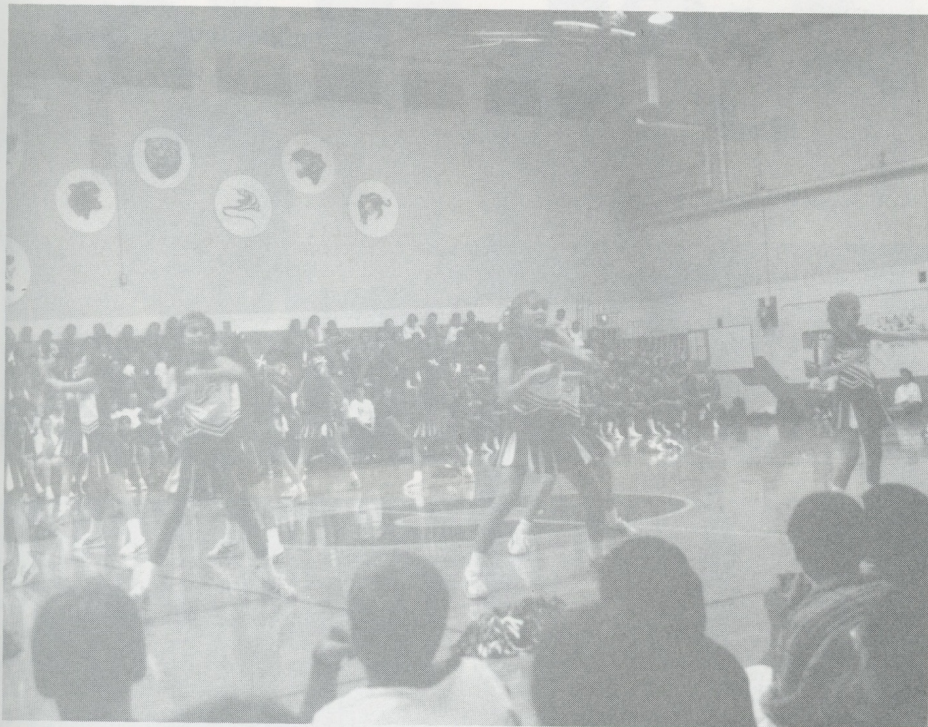

ONE MORE TIME! The school band, lead by Mr. Pierce, plays at a pep rally. The band played at such events often.

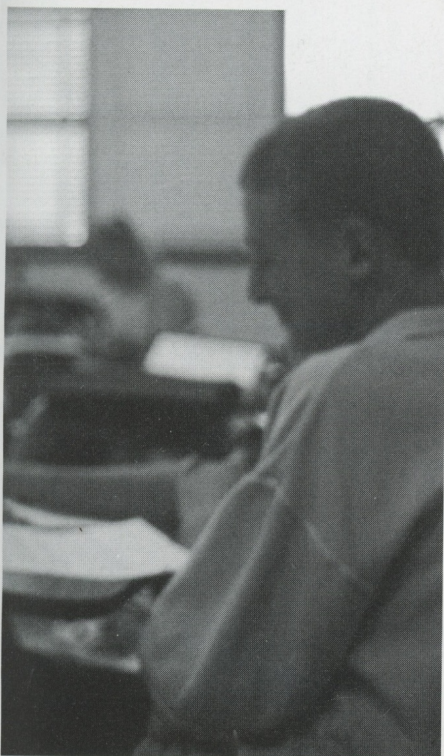

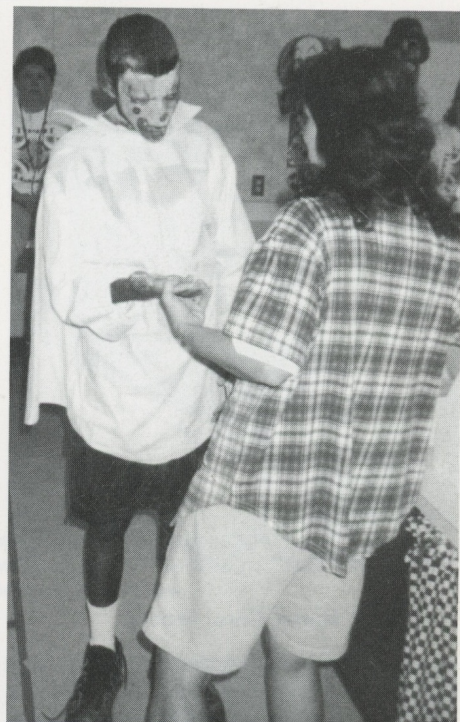

JAM SESSION. Aside from the usual music classes there is now guitar. These guys have learned the basics of guitar.

LET'S DANCE! Cheerleaders show real school spirit when dancing at a pep-rally. The cheerleaders entertained at most of the school events.

WHY AM I DOING THIS? Theater Arts class is busy with painting faces, especially Jeff Davis's. The class was always busy with plays, painting and fun.

TAKEN' IT EASY. When things get to Luke Fedell he just leans back and takes it easy.

FROM THE TOP! The school band rehearses in the band hall. The band would usually spend hours to perfect a song.

The Leaders Of The Journey

Principal, Carlos Cantu

Superintendent, Dr. Jim Gunn

Asst. Principal, Leonard Rhoads

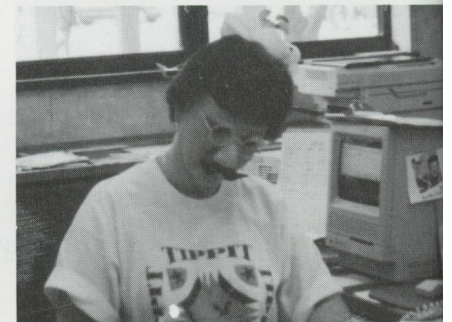

Nurse, Carol Brooks

Librarian, Dorothy Colbert

Administration

GOOFING OFF! - Mrs. Smith, a secretary, wears new face for Halloween.

Secretaries: Top: Janie Torrez, Karen Hartman, Dorothy Zavala, Sue Smith. Bottom: Connie Salyer, Kay Merritt, Barbara Barr.

Custodians Top: Felix Lomas, Pilar Martinez, Paul Dominquez, Norma Guillen, Randy Salazar. Bottom: Julia Ramirez, Martha Dominguez, Hortencia Martinez, Eustolia Bercenas.

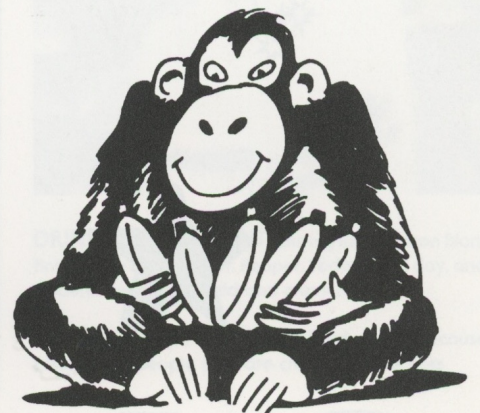

Aids Top: Margie Thacker, Sandy Hill, Maria Melandez, Susie Russell, Debbie Phillips, Pania Meggison. Bottom: Barbara Hall, Judy Boram, Rosie Soriano, Diane Mcnew.

Cafeteria Staff: Terry Tabor, Blanche Riggs, Cafe. Mgr. June Pate, Sharon Castleberry, Bernice Hernandez.

Counselors: Janet Davenport, Howard Carbo.

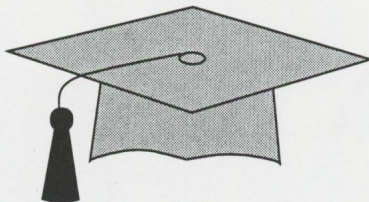

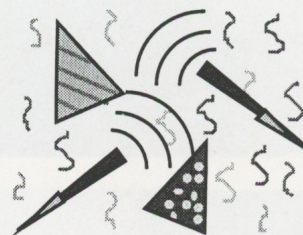

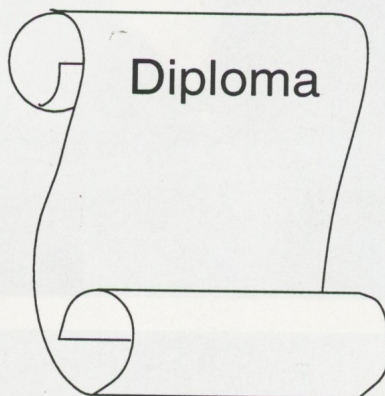

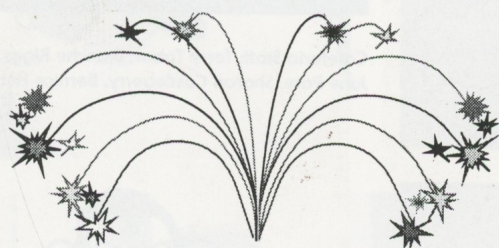

Leaders Of A New Journey

GIMMIE THAT- During lunch Tiffany Wilganowski, Kacy Parker, and Tanya Wall watch Jackie Kots and Tiffany Hemker fight over a highlighter. Jackie and Tiffany have been friends for a long time and always sit by each other at lunch.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY?- Standing in front of the gym, Amanda Mendez, Crystal Guzman, and Samantha Ramirez hang around waiting for the bell to ring.

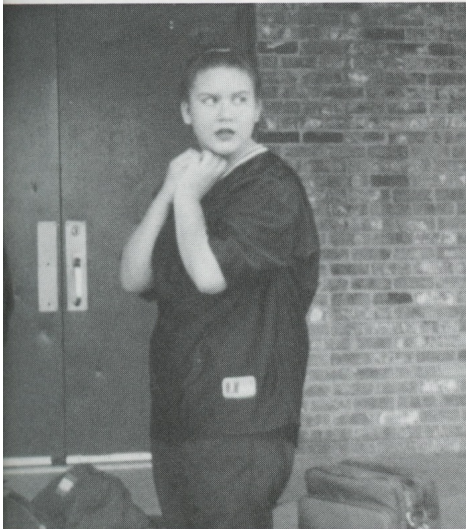

8th

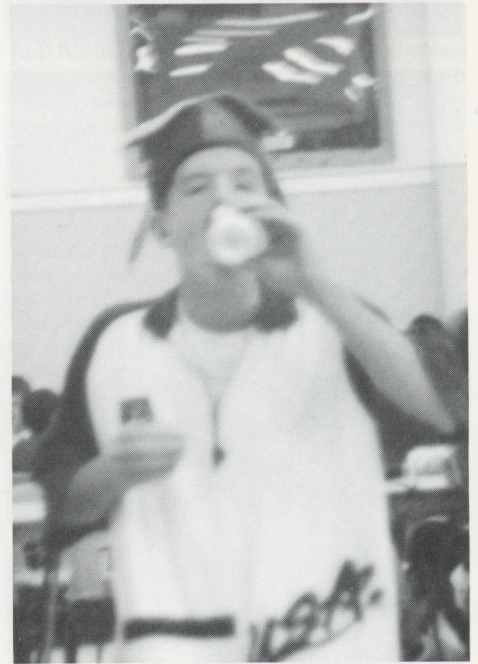

GRADE

WHERE'S MY BOOKS?- In between classes Austin Weiland talks to Jason Rosipal and Cory Schneider. We only have three minutes in between classes, so it's hard to find time to talk.

What Would you like to ask Mr. Cantu?
 "How old are you?"- Charlie Russell "Why would I want to ask Mr. Cantu something? I'm scared of him enough as it is." -Carl Haskell "Why do you have so many rules?" -Katie Harvey

LOOK, THEY'RE TWINS- Before school Becky Morrow, Lia Menchaca, Brian McCrory, and Mace Bell socialize. On twin day everyone dresses up as twins, some people look so much alike it's scary.

DRINK EVERY LAST BIT- During lunch Aaron Blom finishes the rest of his Dr. Pepper. Today is hat day, and students wear their wild and crazy hats.

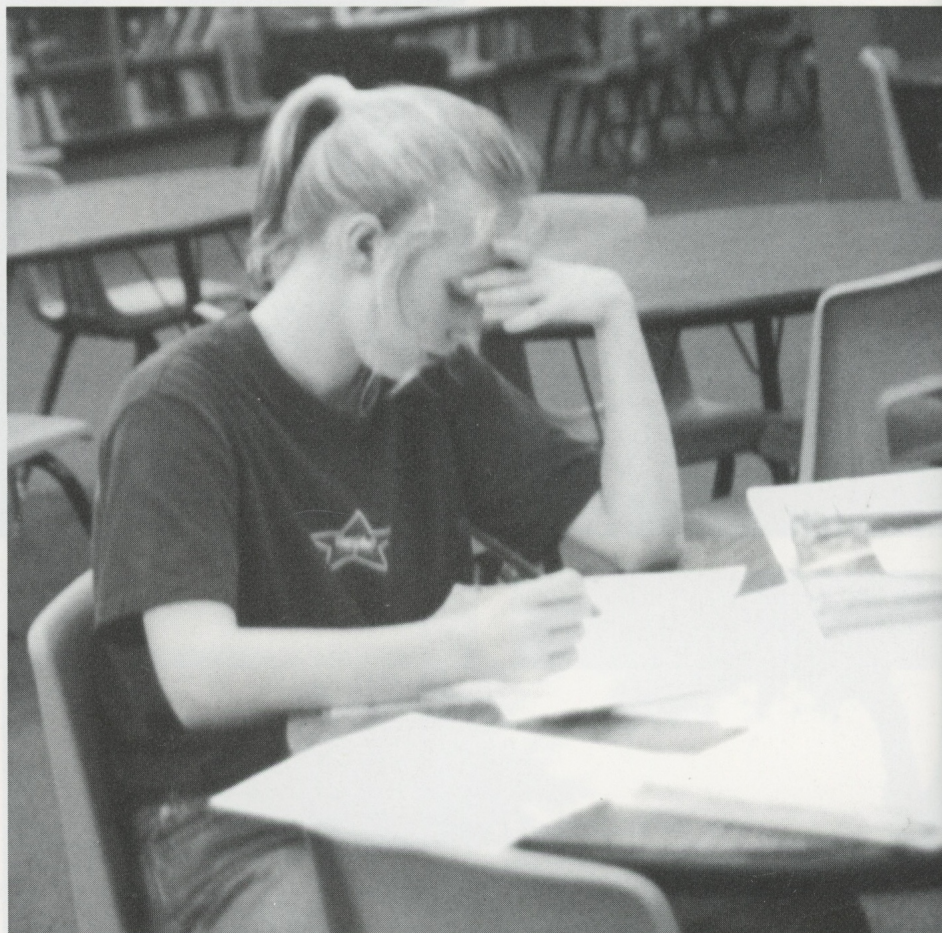

"When I grow up I want to be a Psychologist because I like to tell people they are crazy." -Jackie Kots

Leaders Of A New Journey

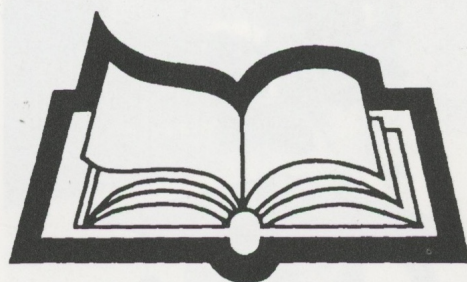

DON'T BE LATE! Strolling down the sidewalk to his next class, we see Russel Vargo. Since there is only 3 minutes between each bell, he'd better hurry or be late.

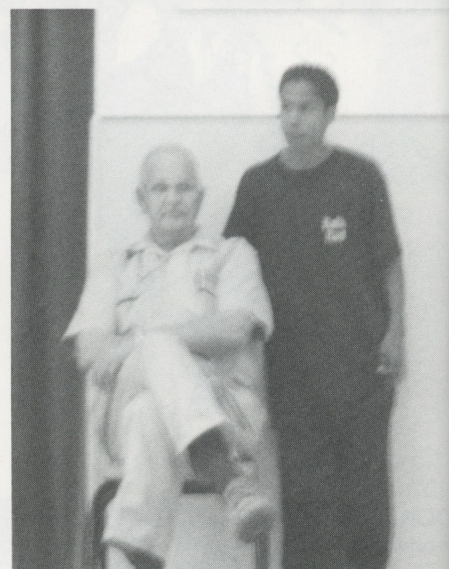

HARD AT WORK. Sitting in the library trying to study is Tracy Wolf.

WHAT'S UP? Standing outside after lunch, Katy Johnson passes the time by talking to her friends.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING UP THERE? Standing on the stage, for getting in trouble, is Jonathon Barron next to Coach Humphreys. Jonathon's nickname was 'Pewe' because he was 'short.'

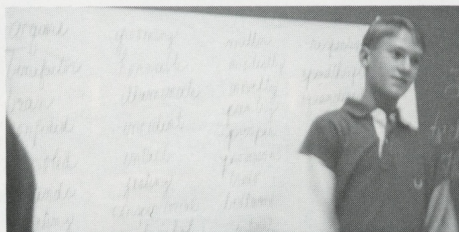

8th

Than You'd Expect

DO I KNOW THE ANSWER?- In Mrs. Hart's language arts class, Jason Hubenthal stands at the front of the class to answer a question. Thank you Jason for answering the question.

COOL FISH!- In art class with Mr. Vandyke, working on her fish, is Christina McGough. Christina is also on the Drill Team.

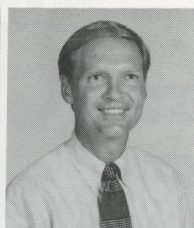

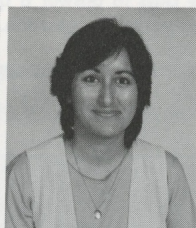

OFF TO WAR. On Declare War on Drugs Day of Red Ribbon Week, Coach Garza and Bobby Hemker try to guess how many fireballs are in the jar. All week long people dressed according to different themes.

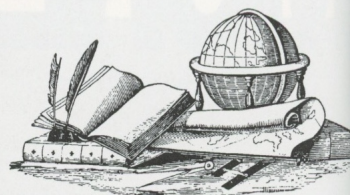

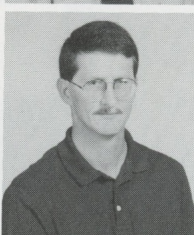

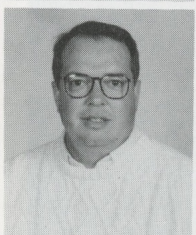

RED RIBBON WEEK- Every day during Red Ribbon Week, there was a new theme for everyone to dress by. Many people participated in the activities. Monday was Sock Out Drugs Day when people wore their crazy socks to school. Tuesday, Shade Out Drugs Day, many people wore hats and sunglasses. Wednesday, was Red Day wore red, died their hair red, and painted their faces red. Each second period class chose the person in their class that was wearing the most red. Winners received a free Big Red drink at lunch. Declare War on Drugs Day was Thursday and many people dressed in camouflage. The same day there was a fire ball contest. Students could guess how many fire balls there was in the jar the person that guessed the closest won the fire balls in the jars. Friday was Tie Up Drugs Day and White Out Drugs Day students a Tippit Middle School wore all types of weird ties. Every twenty minutes a Student Council member got his/her face whited out. For the rest of the day whomever had a white face could not talk to anyone. These students represented all the students that die every day due to drugs. The next Thursday, Halloween was Scare of Drugs Day when most students wore their Halloween costumes to school. As it sounds Red Ribbon Week was both fun and successful.

Challenging New Journeys

New Journeys Never End

HOW DO WE LOOK? - Talking and chatting, Travis Patton and Sean Lafferty go on and on about how good they look in wigs. While watching them Khris Gordon and Robin Hipp found it amusing.

SPEAK UP, PLEASE - Confused Callin Christians and Maggie Simmons try to understand what Rebecca Otto and Katie Spangler are trying to tell them. Kai and Rebecca found it hard to talk with pacifiers in their mouths.

THINKIN' i'm
COOL

TROUBLE AGAIN! - Laughing while in trouble, Patrick Hodgkiss, Travis Patton, Jonathan Lourigan, and Steve Ragsdale do pushups during 7th grade lunch. Coach Garza made the boys do pushups because they didn't stop on the sidewalk when they went outside.

LOOK WHO'S TALKING

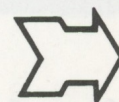

IT'S MINE! - Pulling and tugging, Chris McFall and Cullen Davies fight over a Rice Krispies Treat. I wonder who won this playful tug-of-war?

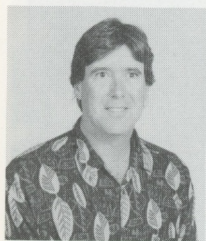

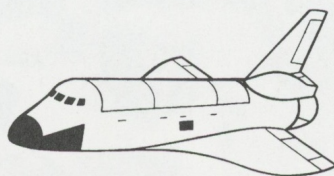

HUH! - During 7th grade lunch Ashley Allman makes a face at Jenna Bezner causing her to laugh. People around them didn't seem to notice what was so funny.

GIVE ME SOME MONEY! - Thirsty Ried Wilson asks Maggie Simmons if he can borrow fifty cents for a coke. So Maggie lent it to him and asked, "Will you pay me back?"

Acting To Make The Journey More Fun

Lights, Cameras, Act!

YOU HAVE OUR ATTENTION!

In Drama, Mrs. Griffith's class is interested in the movie they are watching. Viewing movies helps them become better actors.

ACT!

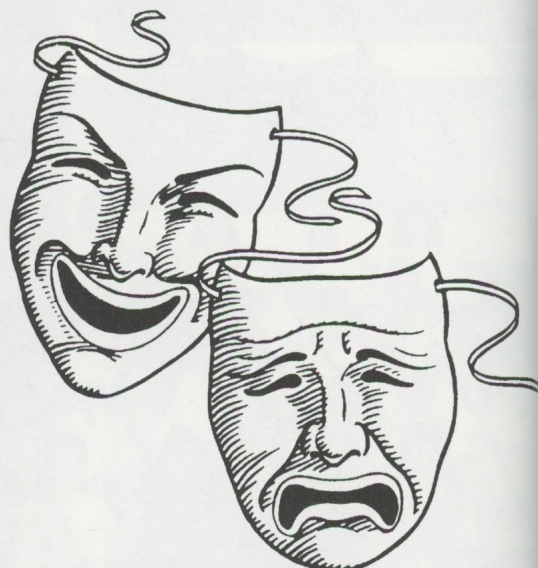

ACTION!!!

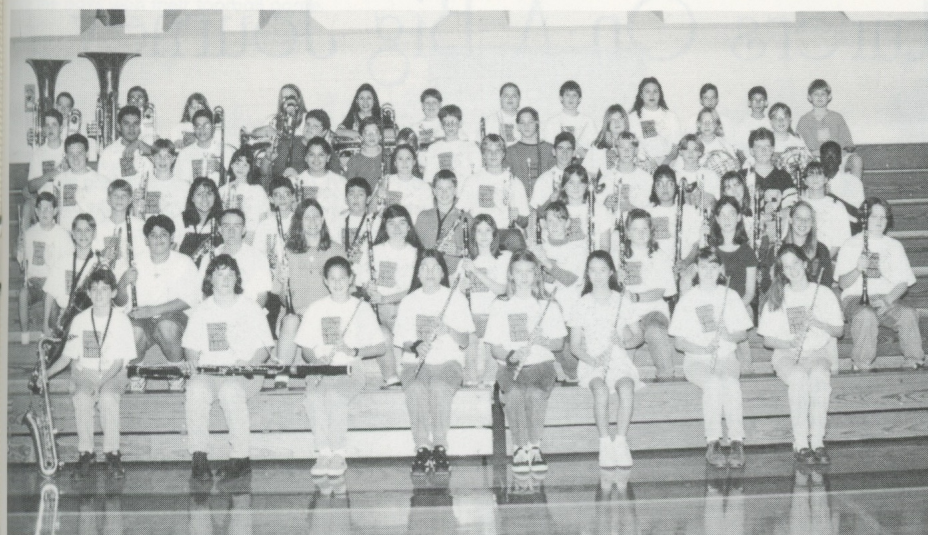

Performing a skit in Drama class, Jon Henson, Chris McFall, Jake Schwierking, and Reece Pickett stop to discuss their lines. Students consult each other to help their acting.

WHAT ACT SHOULD WE DO NEXT?

In Drama, Chip Huntsberry, Lars Nyberg, and Joseph Thompson are thinking of lines. Throughout the year students created skits to perform in front of the class.

I Got It! During an eighth grade B volleyball game, Emily Brosch goes for the ball. Karen Krupicka, Chelsea Bielss, and Courtney Tucker get ready to help her out.

Yeah! Go Eagles! 8th grade football players stand and cheer. Pep-rallies often got everyone stirred up, and ready for the big games that followed.

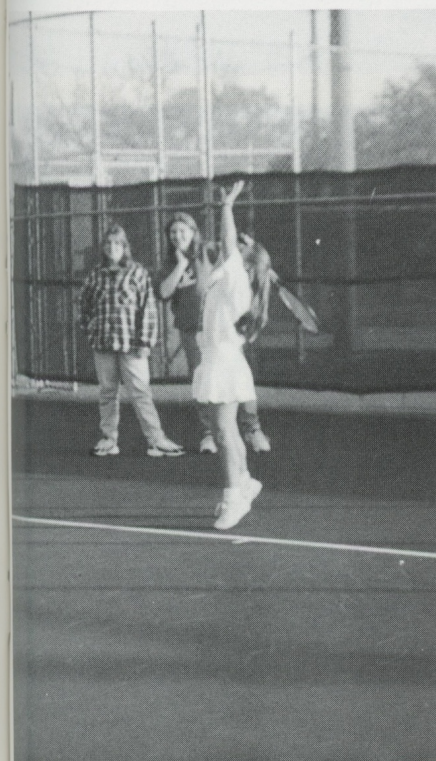

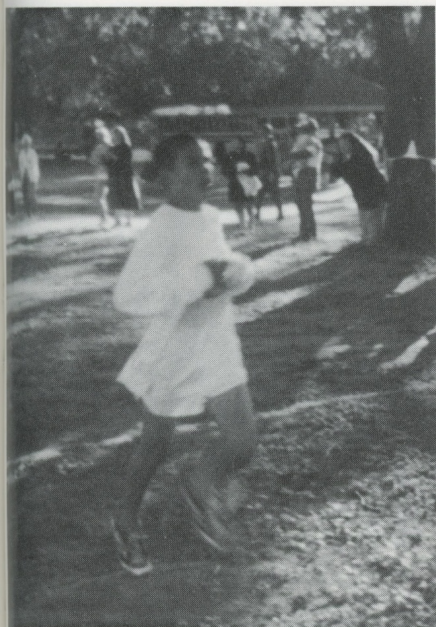

Here's How It Goes . . . Chelsey Hurley and Maggie Simmons listen to the referee before the start of the 7th grade basketball game.

SPORTS

How Far Can He Go? Joe Stephens goes for the touchdown, hoping to take the ball all the way.

Go For The Gold . . . At a local cross-country meet in San Gabriel Park, Russell Vargo passes the finish line at last.

Smack That Ball! Lacey Grimes takes a shot to improve on her serve. Spectators Candace Hart and Sarah Evans look on.

A New Victory . . .

We're All Winners!

Run Away Ball! As Mario Iwabuchi passes the ball, Travis Hogberg makes a desperate attempt to keep it from going out-of-bounds.

Hurry Up . . . Cross-Country team members wait at the starting line to begin. They always anticipated great races.

Look Out! As Alan Kitterman gets tackled by members of the opposing team, Ryan Blom and other team mates run to his rescue.

Travis Ross, Lee Sparks, Alan Harris, Mark Nemetsky, Reece Pickett, Josh Griffin, Nathan Herron, Jose Mata, and Adam Best.

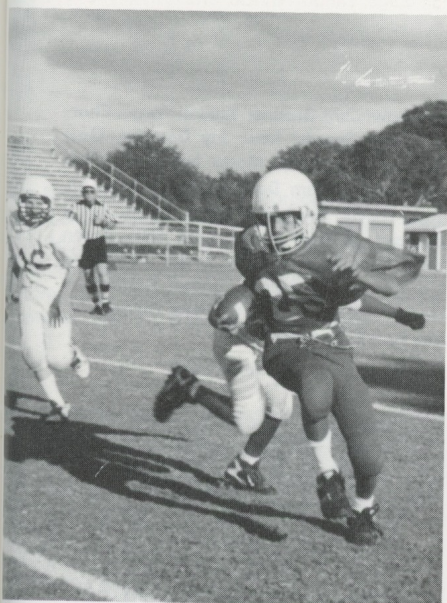

Crunch! The Eagles smash a Westview ball carrier as he attempts to gain yardage. Powerful hits often brought the crowd to its feet and excited the players on the field.

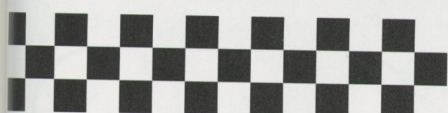

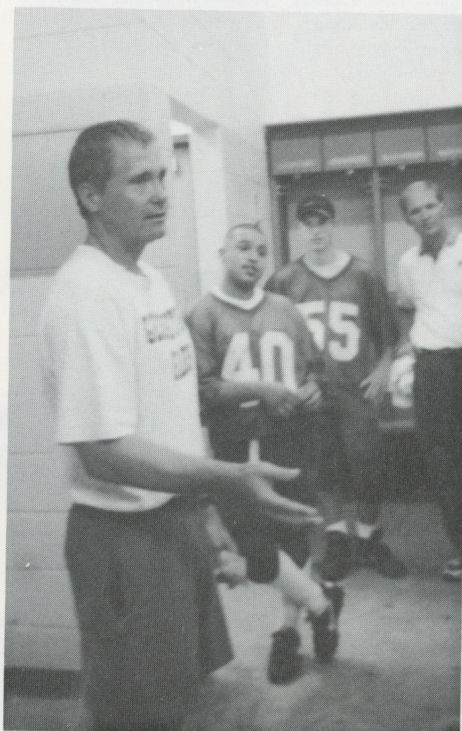

Hittin' Em Hard . . .

. . . During A Smashing Season!

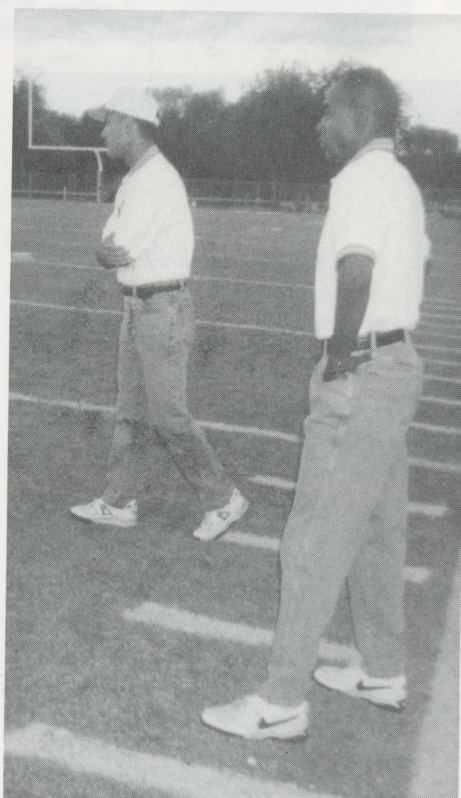

Whoosh! Anthony Bracamontez cleverly eludes a tackler on his way down the field for an Eagle touchdown. He scored many during the year.

Listen Up! Coach Mjos discusses the game plan as the Eagles prepare for another gridiron battle. His speeches would often get the team fired up.

Yah! Rah! The seventh grade football teams cheer enthusiastically at a pep rally. Cheering at a pep rally gave students a chance to blow off steam.

Coach knows best . . . Coach Garza shouts out plays to his team as Coach Dickerson watches on.

IT'S SATURDAY NIGHT!- The Tippit cheerleaders transform into Spartan cheerleaders for a pep rally.

LISTEN UP!- Coach Cain Peps up the eighth grade volleyball team before a game.

DON'T MESS WITH US!- Laura Leps and Jenny Doherty are finalists for the Twin Day Contest.

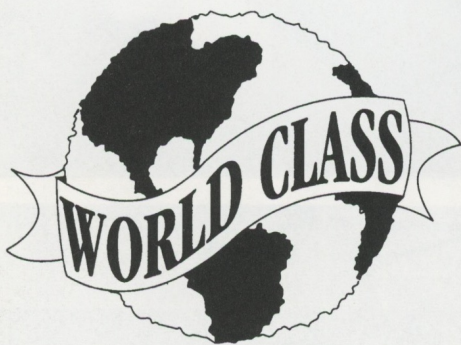

FLASH BACK

HUH!- Chase Hobbs looks up in wonder at what to do in Yearbook Class.

Everyday People Are Respected!

Let's Not Forget Their Good Deeds!

PAYING RESPECT - Saluting the Table of Remembrance, The Veteran's Band remembers America's fallen heroes. This table was created to pay respect to Americans killed or missing in action.

THE FLAGS OF OUR ALLIES - All eyes are on the Veteran's Day Assembly. They were holding flags representing countries that fought in wars.

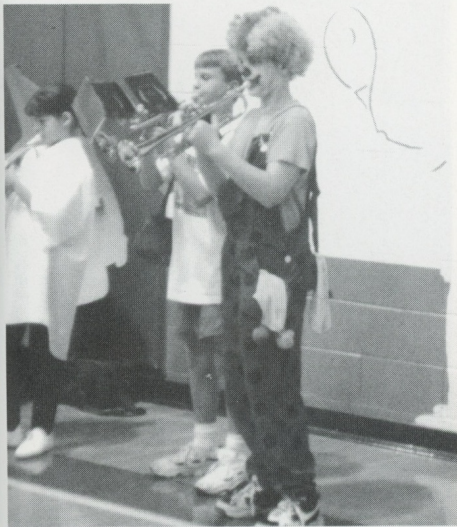

LISTEN UP - While Coach Tabor tells her team how to play the game, the 7th grade "A" team girls listen up for their plays.

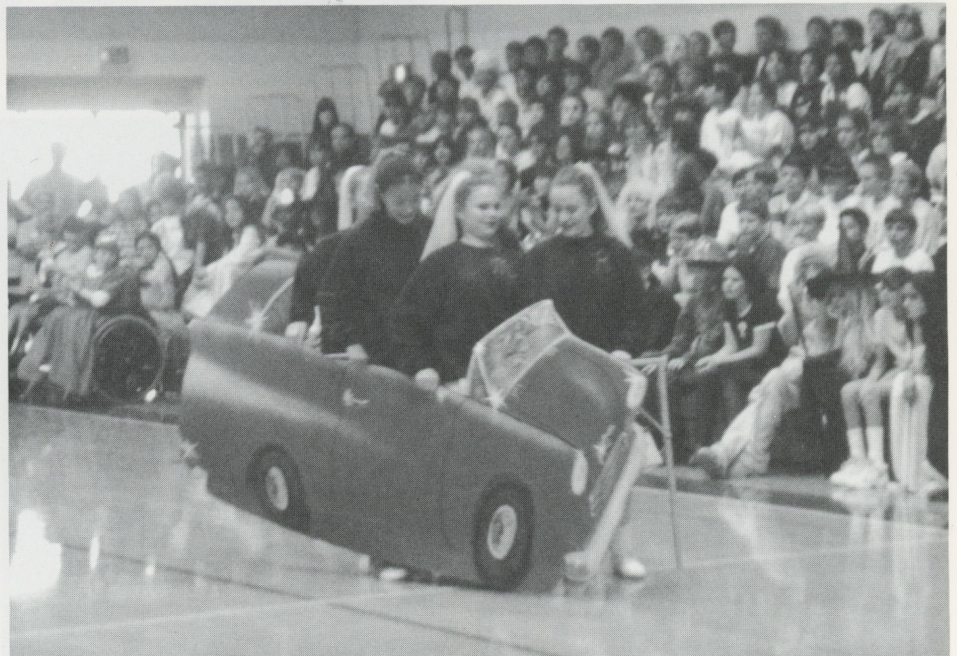

Everyday We See New Things!

They Surprise Us Every Time!

PLAYING HARD - Playing his instrument during a pep-rally, Bradley Wuthrich is dressed as a clown for Halloween.

SING IT - Singing is what the Zambian Accapella Choir does all over the United States. They sang for TMS and amazed everyone with their voices and their dances.

GO PINK LADIES - From the Drill Team, Amanda Sammon, Kim Taylor, Megan McClung, and Rachel Culler, were chosen to be Pink Ladies at a pep-rally.

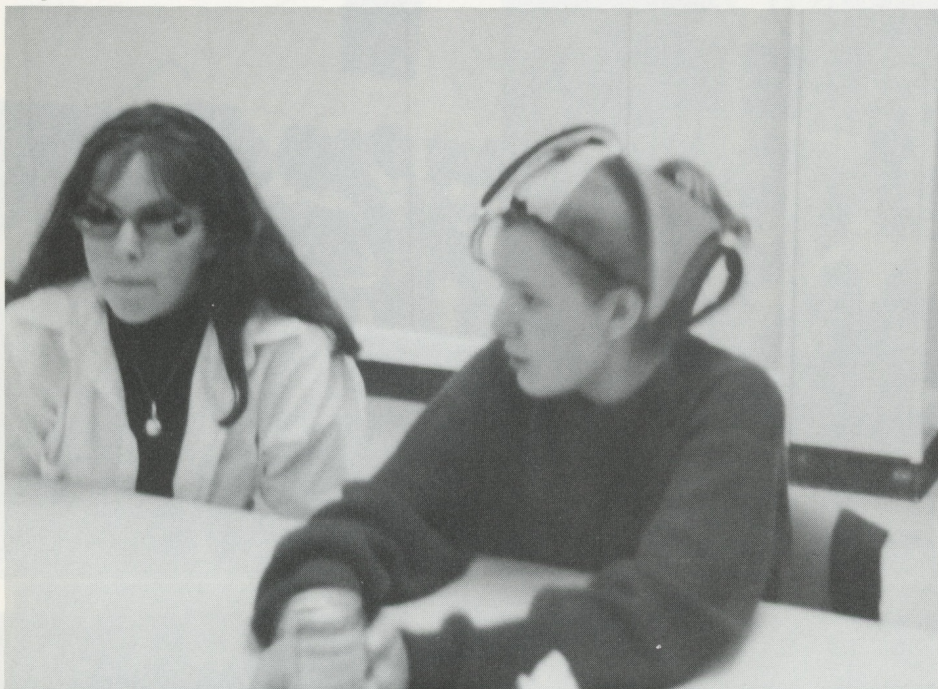

Caught In The Action

Never Seen Before Pictures

SHADE OUT DRUGS!- Lisa Herrera and Samantha Glasscock join in on wearing hats and sun glasses to shade out drugs.

IN THE ARMY NOW!- Chelsea Bielss and Courtney Tucker dress up for war on Drug Day.

FIRE IT UP!- Lia Menchaca, Courtney Tucker, and Karen Krupicka get fired up before a volleyball game.

PICTURE PERFECT!- Melissa Martinez and Christy Martinez look at a picture to make sure it looks good.

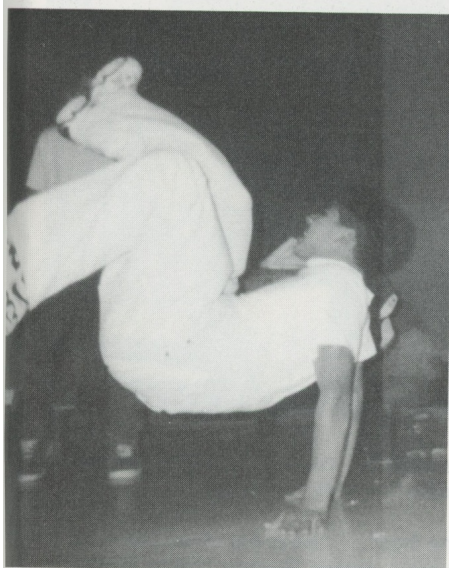

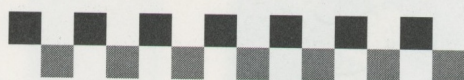

The Good Times

Memories Of '97

Raggedy Twins - As Amanda Hanrahan gets ready to leave, she tries not to leave her Raggedy Ann Dolly behind.

Heart Filled Moment - The crowd stands up to dance to the fight song as the pep rally ends.

Break It Down! - Jaun Espinoza shows off his talent of dancing on the stage during the 8th grade lunch.

Great Job Son - Jason Hubenthal shakes Mr. Cantu's hand after receiving an award from N.J.H.S.

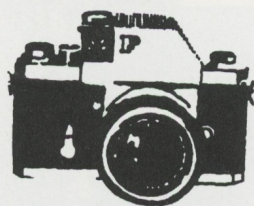

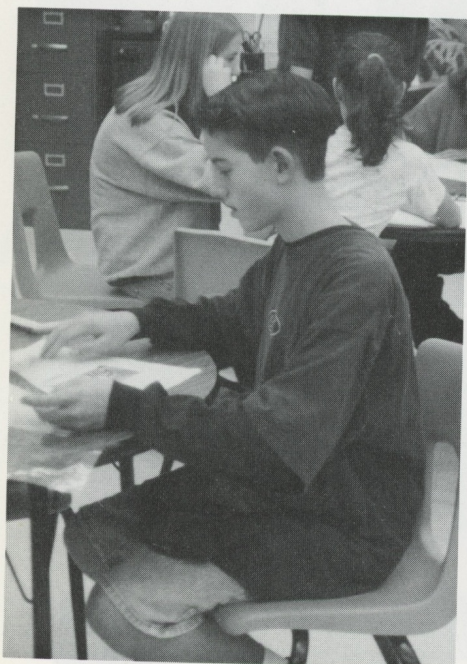

Get The Groove On - The Zambian group tries to teach Coach Dickerson some interesting moves during the assembly.

They Started It . . . We Finished It!

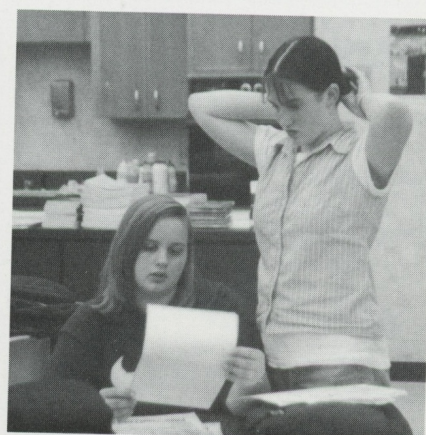

2nd Semester Yearbook Staff

This Goes Here . . . Nathan Porter places pictures for his final copy. Making the yearbook was long, hard, fun work.

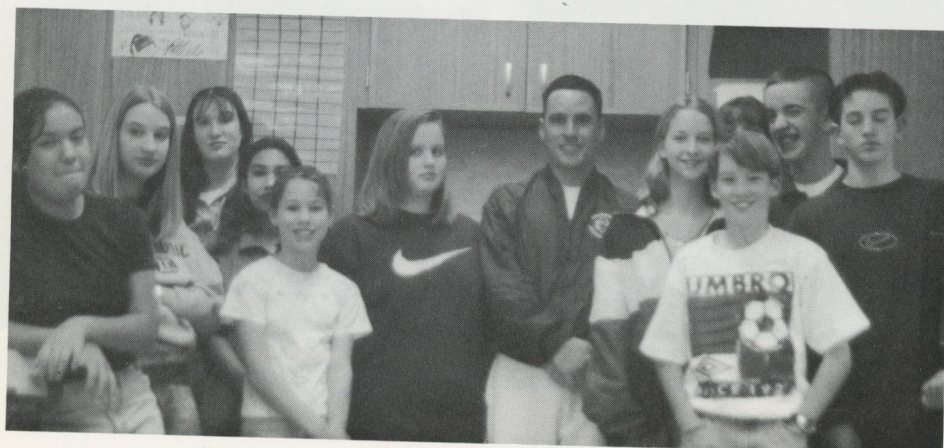

Finishing Touches. Yearbook members work hard to finish their layouts towards the end of deadline.
